Vigilant and Faithful Servants

The Lord Jesus said: "Who then is the faithful and prudent manager whom his master will put in charge of his slaves, to give them their allowance of food at the proper time?

Blessed is that slave whom his master will find at work when he arrives. Truly I tell you, he will put that one in charge of all his possessions. But if that slave says to himself, 'My master is delayed in coming,' and if he begins to beat the other slaves, men and women, and to eat and drink and get drunk, the master of that slave will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour that he does not know, and will cut him in pieces, and put him with the unfaithful. That slave who knew what his master wanted, but did not prepare himself or do what was wanted, will receive a severe beating. But the one who did not know and did what deserved a beating will receive a light beating. From everyone to whom much has been given, much will be required; and from the one to whom much has been entrusted, even more will be demanded.

In Luke 12/42-48, Jesus reminds every priest and servant of God that they are stewards, not owners, and that the greater the trust given to them, the greater the love, vigilance, and responsibility is expected in serving God's people.

WISDOM FROM THE SAINTS: Not every quiet man is humble, but every humble man is quiet.-- St Isaac the Syrian

EPISTLE

1 TIMOTHY 4:6-16

Brothers and Sisters:

If you put these instructions before the brothers and sisters, you will be a good servant of Christ Jesus, nourished on the words of the faith and of the sound teaching that you have followed. Have nothing to do with profane myths and old wives' tales. Train yourself in godliness, for, while physical training is of some value, godliness is valuable in every way, holding promise for both the present life and the life to come. The saying is sure and worthy of full acceptance. For to this end we toil and struggle, because we have our hope set on the living God, who is the Savior of all people, especially of those who believe. These are the things you must insist on and teach. Let no one despise your youth, but set the believers an example in speech and conduct, in love, in faith, in purity. Until I arrive, give attention to the public reading of scripture, to exhorting, to teaching. Do not neglect the gift that is in you, which was given to you through prophecy with the laying on of hands by the council of elders. Put these things into practice, devote yourself to them, so that all may see your progress. Pay close attention to yourself and to your teaching; continue in these things, for in doing this you will save both yourself and your hearers. Praise be to God always!

BECOME A LECTOR!

We would like to develop a corps of trained lectors to read the Epistle at Masses. If interested, please email your contact information to stmaronchurchtorrington@gmail.com or samslaiby@snet.net or call the rectory at (860) 489-9015 and leave a message. Sam Slaiby has volunteered to train prospective lectors. This can be a great learning experience for anyone, especially young people, who would like to develop public speaking skills.

SHORT ARTICLES AND NOTES

My Dear Friends:

Continuing the survey of the Acts of the Apostles, we come to Acts 23. Paul stands before the Jewish council and speaks with a clear conscience about his life before God. When conflict rises, the Lord appears to him at night and says, "Take courage", promising that he will testify in Rome as he has in Jerusalem. Even when enemies plot to kill him, God protects Paul through unexpected people, including Paul's own nephew. The chapter shows that mission is not safe, but it is never abandoned by God. Paul's courage is strengthened not by comfort, but by the Lord's presence.

Acts 23 teaches us that when God calls, he also guards the path.

My question for you to think about this week is: How is ten minutes of prayer each day going to help me?

I wish you all a warm and blessed week ahead.

Fr. Fadi

THE OLD TESTAMENT: DEUTERONOMY

Deuteronomy is the final speech from Moses before the Israelite people entered the Promised Land. He reminds them that faith is not only memory, but daily obedience of the heart. Again and again, Moses tells the people to listen, to love the Lord, and to walk in His ways. The book shows that God's law is not a burden but a guide that protects freedom and life.

Deuteronomy connects past salvation with present responsibility and future hope. It teaches us that every generation must choose again to follow God with trust and courage.

OUR PARISH PRAYER INTENTION FOR THE MONTH OF JANUARY IS FOR THE UNBORN BABIES IN THEIR MOTHER'S WOMBS

Lord, we pray for the unborn babies in their mother's wombs, that You protect them with Your loving hand.

Grant their families courage, peace, and the grace to welcome the gift of life with faith and joy. Amen

Hallmark Cards before retiring to help care for her grandchildren, a role she embraced with boundless love and devotion. Her radiant smile, infectious laughter, larger than life personality, and feisty spirit left an unforgettable mark on everyone who knew her. Ann, Alex and the entire Zubrowski family spent many happy years here at Saint Maron's. Father Fadi and Sub Deacon Mike offered prayers and encouragement to the family on their loss and will be offering a Mass for the repose of Ann's soul.

Eternal rest grant unto her, O Lord, and let Your perpetual light shine upon her. May her soul and the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace. Amen.
